

Dear Parents and Guardians,

This holiday season we are participating in the 7th Annual Scholastic Books Pajama Drive. You can find additional information about the Scholastic Books PJ Drive at www.scholastic.com/pajamadrive.

We are asking students to donate a pair of new children's pajamas to children in need. Scholastic will donate one book for each pair of pajamas we collect.

We will be collecting pajamas starting on Monday, December 3rd - Friday, December 14th. On our last day of school before the holiday break (Wednesday December 19th) we are inviting students to wear their own pajamas for fun! Please make sure that your child is dressed in pajamas that meet our school dress code. No slippers please!

Participation is voluntary. Thank you for helping us with this school wide activity.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ross
