Each state recommendation becomes effective on January 1 of the following year. Georgia state law requires that each Georgia school system “shall implement textbook adoptions from textbook listings prescribed by the state board...within 18 months of the time said textbooks listings are provided by the state board.” (O.C.G.A 20-2-168)

The projected schedule of state recommendation cycles is as follows:

APPROVED CURRICULUM GUIDES

- A. Approved Curriculum Guides
- B. Timeline for Completion
- C. Lost Textbooks
- D. Textbook Disposal
- E. Procedure for Designation of Textbook Committee
- F. Evaluation and Recommendation Procedures

A. Georgia Textbook/Instructional Materials Recommendation Program

Georgia's Legislative Provision of 1937, known as the Free Textbook Law, directed the Georgia Board of Education to provide textbooks for use in the elementary, middle, and high schools. Georgia Code provides that the "Georgia Board of Education is authorized to prescribe, by regulation, the definition of the term "textbook" to include but not be limited to "systematically designed instructional material in any medium, print or non-print, that constitutes the principal source of study for or directly enhances the instruction of a state-funded course" and to prescribe the textbooks to be used in the various grades in the public schools of this state, including the elementary grades and high school grades. The state board may provide, by regulation, for multiple listings of books for use in the various grades and may, in its discretion, authorize the county school superintendents or the superintendents of independent school systems to exercise a choice between books so listed or adopted for any particular grade."
(20-2-1010)

In order that the core instructional materials are of the highest quality, the state board has established procedures for evaluating and recommending textbooks in state-funded courses (Georgia Board of Education Rules 160-4-4-.10 and 160-4-4-.20). Each year publishers of record are given notice of courses and grade levels for which textbooks will be recommended. The notice includes dates for the recommendation cycle and process and other directives regarding information to be submitted. Interested publishers are provided complete recommendation information from the department of education including requirements for submitting bids, forms to be completed, regulations and deadlines.

Annually, the State Board of Education appoints committees to serve in an advisory capacity, coordinating the evaluation of texts submitted for recommendation in specified subject areas and making recommendations to the board for textbooks to be state recommended. The State Textbook Advisory Committees consist of professional educators and lay members, appointed from each congressional district and the state at-large.

During the summer, the State Textbook Advisory Committees coordinate evaluations of all titles submitted by publishers. The committees then meet in July to recommend to the state board those titles that meet predetermined criteria. There are no numerical restrictions regarding the number of titles to be selected for state recommendation. The determining factor governing recommendation is instructional quality. The recommended list of textbooks is submitted to the State Board of Education for state recommendation, normally at its September or October meeting. A list of these recommended textbooks is then prepared and distributed to Georgia school systems by January.

B. Timeline for Completion

Georgia State Law requires that each Georgia School System “shall implement textbook adoptions from textbooks listings prescribed by the State Board....within 18 months of the time said textbook listings are provided by the State Board.” (OCGA 20-2-168)

The Textbook Adoption Committee will present its recommendation to the superintendent of schools prior to the March school board meeting.

The superintendent will make a recommendation to the Camden County School Board at the March meeting.

C. Lost Textbooks

Textbooks are issued to students by teachers of individual subjects. The condition of the book and book number are recorded at the time the book is issued. The student assumes responsibility for the book at the time of issuance. Students who lose a textbook will not be issued a new textbook until the lost textbook is paid for.

When a student loses a book, the amount to be charged will be as follows:

First Year: Excellent= full price

Second Year: Good= 5/6 of full price

Third and fourth Year: Fair= ½ full price

Fifth and Sixth Year: Poor=1/3 full price

A damage fee will be collected when a book is mishandled and mistreated to the extent that it causes a book to lose more value than it would through normal wear and tear. Books damaged beyond use will be charged full price according to the year of issuance.

D. Textbook Disposal

Textbooks that were purchased with state funds will be sold to used textbook companies or other interested parties by the bid process. Unusable books will be sold to paper recyclers if possible.

If books cannot be disposed of by the two methods listed above they may be given to non-profit agencies or taken to the local landfill and buried.

E. Procedure for Designation of Textbook Committee

When appropriate the subject area committee will serve as the textbook adoption committee. It will organize and lead the textbook adoption process. When deemed not appropriate, each school will recommend a predetermined number* of teachers to the curriculum department for the textbook adoption committee. This committee will be charged with doing an intensive evaluation of the designated subject area and an evaluation of current textbooks.

*Number based on the needs for a particular subject area.

F. Evaluation and Recommendation Procedure

The Textbook Committee will evaluate available textbooks and narrow the selection process down to a maximum of three publishers per series.

These three series will be evaluated by all teachers who teach this subject. Evaluations will be returned to the textbook committee members who will then select the top-rated publisher for each grade level or subject. For most subjects books will be adopted K-5, 6-8, and for individual subjects at the high school.

However, the textbook committee has the option of recommending whatever arrangement it feels is most appropriate.

The following criteria will be used to select the textbook to be recommended.

CRITERIA FOR TEXTBOOK ADOPTIONS

The Camden County School System will use the accompanying criteria for the evaluation of textbooks. In order to address local community concerns and needs, committee members are representative of each individual school. In addition, the membership is representative of parents, the board of education, teachers, and administrators.

All text materials used in the classroom should arouse curiosity and interest, should stimulate thinking, should promote the exercise of the independent judgment, should furnish reliable and accurate basic information and should complement other instructional materials pertinent to the curriculum area being studied.

If applicable to the subject area being considered, the following criteria are to be used in evaluating each textbook submitted for adoption. In addition to the general criteria, specific criteria are to be used in evaluating text material in the individual subject areas.

I. CONTENT

A. General

- 1. Are the content and the sequence of the materials reasonably consistent with the current State guides and other curriculum publications developed by the State Department of Education and the goals of the State Board of Education?
